

Johannes Brechtken, MD

Cardiologist

Education and training

Medical School: Philipps University Marburg 1997

Residency in Internal Medicine: Cleveland Clinic Foundation 2003

Fellowship in Cardiovascular Disease: University of Minnesota 2006

Fellowship in Interventional Cardiology: University of Minnesota 2007

Board certified

American Board of Internal Medicine

American Board of Internal Medicine-Cardiovascular Disease

American Board of Internal Medicine-Interventional Cardiology

American Board of Vascular Medicine-Vascular Medicine

American Board of Vascular Medicine-Endovascular Medicine

Licensed

State of Minnesota

State of Wisconsin

Professional Associations

American College of Cardiology

Society for Cardiac Angiography and Interventions

Society for Vascular Medicine

Personal

My goal is to provide the best care possible for my patients with a focus on prevention of disease progression and improvement in quality of life. My specialization includes the treatment of acute myocardial infarction and coronary interventions. I also have a strong interest in vascular medicine and perform endovascular procedures for peripheral arterial diseases. Outside of work I enjoy traveling, literature, scuba diving and marine biology.