

Mengnai Li, MD

Orthopaedic Surgeon

Dr Li joined Regions Hospital and the University of Minnesota Physicians in 2006. He is originally from Qiqihar, China and moved to the United States in 2000. His expertise includes pediatric orthopaedic surgery, arthritis and joint replacement surgery, including minimally invasive surgery and computer navigated joint replacement. He has a special interest in pediatric elbow injury. He is among the twenty orthopaedic surgeons who received a traveling fellowship at the 2004 Annual Arthroplasty Conference in San Francisco.

Education and Training

Medical School: Beijing Medical University, 1990-95

Internship: General Surgery, Beijing Medical University, 1995-96

Residency: Orthopaedic Surgery, Beijing Medical University, Beijing, 1996-2000

Graduate School: PhD, Virginia Commonwealth University, Richmond, 2000-2005

Fellowship: Adult Reconstruction, Virginia Commonwealth University, Richmond, 2004-05 Pediatric Orthopaedic Surgery, Hospital for Special Surgery/ Weill Medical College of Cornell University, New York, 2005-06

Memberships

American Association of Anatomists

Chinese Academy of Orthopaedic Surgeons

Licensed

State of New York, State of Minnesota

Appointments and Elected Positions

Staff, Bon Secour St. Mary's hospital, Richmond, VA, 2004-05

Senior Clinical Associate in Orthopaedic Surgery, Weill Medical College of Cornell University, New York, NY 2005-06

Assistant Professor of Orthopaedics, University of Minnesota, Minneapolis, MN, 2006

Personal

Dr. Li is married with one son. He enjoys playing badminton and placed 2nd in the Men's single championship in Beijing, China, 1999.